UCDB offers discounts on transfers and for diploma holders

Advantages reach 30% discount for graduates

Students from other institutions who wish to transfer the course to Dom Bosco Catholic University, or diploma holders who wish to start a new degree, have discounts on tuition fees for the entire course. The request can be made at the Call Center (www.ucdb.br), in the administrative block of the Tamandaré campus.

Satisfied with her choice of UCDB, law student Samana Dionea da Silva Fonseca took the opportunity to study with quality and at a discount:

“I’m new to the state, before I moved, I heard a lot of people speak well about the institution, so I decided to check it out and did a little research about UCDB. Of the three colleges I have attended, this one excelled in teaching and organization, not to mention the structure, very beautiful. I cite as advantages the directory, the extension and preparation courses. I really enjoyed it, including thinking about doing a post here, as soon as I finish my degree”.

Silvana Romanini Monti, UCDB's 3rd semester student of Architecture and Urbanism, was transferred to Católica in the second semester of last year and also approved the choice:

"UCDB is undoubtedly extremely organized and I really like this organization, the university's rigidity in terms of time, methodology and how the tests are. It's all very well organized. Teachers have a lot of knowledge. I love studying at UCDB and it's meeting my expectations".

Hugo & Guilherme launches new DVD at the UCDB June Party

The biggest university June party in Mato Grosso do Sul also featured singer Felipe Santos, Marco Antônio & Gabriel and DJ Panda

Hugo & Guilherme rocked the crowd that filled the biggest University June Festival of Mato Grosso do Sul (8th), the June Festival of UCDB. The duo from Goiás took the opportunity to release the songs of the third DVD “No pelo em Campo Grande”, recorded in the Capital in September last year, featuring the hits “Conveniência”, “Na Maldade” and “Imagina”, as well as the unprecedented “Namorada Reserva” and “Teste da Mãozinha”. Singer Felipe Santos, duo Marco Antonio & Gabriel and DJ Panda also performed before the main show.

“We realize the happiness of the students in being together at the UCDB

June Party and also in being able to raise funds so that they can afford their graduation. The biggest university June Festival in our state is already a tradition and, for us, continuing this festival is a source of great joy”, celebrated the Dean of UCDB, Fr. Ricardo Carlos.

Divided into various stalls, the students took the opportunity to market pastries, mulled wine, hot dogs, carreteiro rice, kebabs, sweets and drinks. “Our goal is to raise money to attend a festival next year. We were very excited about this opportunity”, said 5th semester law scholar Geyse Espinosa, member of the UCDB Choir.

Public school students participate in Public Health Day at UCDB

Event is part of the Public Health Extension Project

Students from the municipal schools Elizabel Maria Gomes Sales (in the Santa Luzia neighborhood) and Elpídio Reis (Mata do Jacinto) participated, on June 7, in the Public Health Day, an action that integrates the Public Health extension project, involving 50 students from the Biology, Nursing, Nutrition, Psychology, Veterinary Medicine, Biomedicine, Social Work and Pedagogy courses.

“Our main goal is to bring students from the municipal school system to have a different reality here on campus. This is being a big science lab for them”, explained project coordinator Magyda Arabia Araji Dahroug Moussa.

She noted that students go through the Veterinary Hospital, Wildlife Laboratory, Vivarium, receive information on how to fight dengue mosquito and other diseases. They also attended a dance class with the Physical Education students and met the UCDB Courtyard. Every Friday students from two schools are expected to visit the institution’s structure, one in each period.

For the teacher of the science laboratory of Elpídio Reis Municipal School, Mauro Vinícius, the visit was very important, mainly because the students had learned more about the environment. “With these talks, the children were able to learn more about the need to take care of the animals and the environment in which we live, and all this information will contribute not only to their performance during class, but also to become adults aware of the impacts they generate in the environment in which they live”, said the teacher.

More information on “Public Health in Action and Extension” can be obtained through the UCDB Extension Programs and Projects Area by calling (67) 3312-3758.

Own Evaluation Committee seeks to hear the opinion of students to improve institution

Commission has existed at UCDB for over 25 years; law became mandatory in 2004

Opinions and suggestions from the academic community are heard by CPA

Dom Bosco Catholic University has had its own Evaluation Committee (CPA) for over 25 years, even before the obligation (Law 10,861 April 2004). It has the function of promoting and developing the evaluation of the University in a continuous and ethical manner, seeking to identify institutional policies, the quality of teaching, research and extension.

“We do the didactic-pedagogical evaluation of all subjects, all semesters. In the second year, we evaluate the courses and internships, and in the third year, in addition to the subjects, we evaluate the institution”, explains CPA coordinator Mainaide Zanotto Velasques.

Through this tool, it is possible to make adjustments in the curriculum of the courses, check the form of methodology applied, improvements in the physical structure of the University, among others. “Now, for example, we have the active methodologies in which we build a new institutional development plan, exactly to say what matters to the student. If the discipline is difficult to understand, we make new formations of academic propositions”, exemplifies the coordinator. For more information contact via email cpa@ucdb.br.
